USCG CERTIFICATE OF DOCUMENTATION EXPIRATION NOTICE

INQUIRING VESSEL
Vessel Name: X	Redacted
Official Number:	Redacted

ATTENTION:

At this time, public records indicate that your vessel's USCG Documentation is SET TO EXPIRE. A current Certificate of Documentation is required to be on board your vessel at all times (46 CFR 67.313). It is critical that the documentation be RENEWED on time to avoid penalties and the possibility of your documentation lapsing. The operation of a vessel without valid USCG Documentation could constitute a fine and/or additional fees per day. If you have already renewed your vessel's certificate of documentation, or feel that you have received this courtesy notice in error, you may disregard this notice.

Please be advised Certificates will now be issued for 5 years.

The Coast Guard Authorization Act Sec. 512:

The Coast Guard Authorization Act Sec. 512, includes a provision which states that recreational COD's will be issued for a validity of 5 years. All Recreational vessels that are documented by the U.S Coast Guard (recreational COD's) will be issued for an extended period of 5 years only. Recreational Certificates will no longer be issued for periods of 1 – 4 years.

Vessel owners are encouraged to renew their vessel electronically or by phone to avoid the expiration of the vessel certificate. All contact information is located below. Our new private online application portal has been designed to ensure the security of your information, providing you with advanced SSL-Encryption, and confirmation email of your application submission. You are under no obligation to utilize our service. Use of our process requires payment of a service fee in addition to the government renewal application fee. All application and processing fees are non-refundable. Vessel Documentation Portal has assisted thousands of boat owners in applying for and obtaining US Coast Guard Certificates of Documentation as well as other documentation.
